

Book recommendations for Year 1 Children to share with Parents at home.

Meerkat Mail by Emily Gravett

A great book and can encourage the writing of messages, postcards and maps.

The Tiger who came to tea by Judith Kerr

A long-standing favourite, super for discussion, who would you have to tea & what would you feed them?

Six Dinner Sid By Inga Moore

A lovely tale about the cheeky cat who manages to eat more than he should!

Aliens love underpants By Claire Freedman and Ben Cort

A humorous tale that can spark imagination about space & designing own underpants!

The Owl who is afraid of the dark by Jill Tomlinson

This can be read as a picture book or a first paperback. It tells the tale of Plop, a young owl, who is afraid of the dark he is set challenges to overcome his fears

Poetry - A first poetry book by Pie Corbett & Gaby Morgan

Very Useful Website giving Year group book lists which will also help you choose a non-fiction age appropriate book of choice.

www.booksfortopics.com

Also, if you want to buy less costly books the second-hand book website is superb.

www.worldofbooks.com

We hope these books titles and guidance are of use, the most important point is that reading and sharing of stories should be enjoyable not a battle. If the texts are too challenging you can share the story, talk about the story, spot key words and rhyming words.