

Book recommendations for Year 2 Children to share with Parents at home.

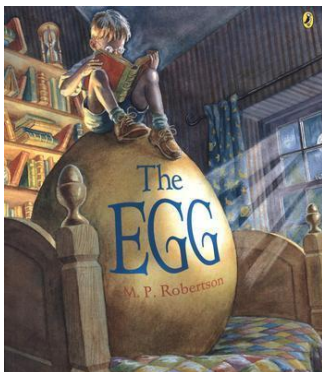

Lighthouse Keeper's lunch by Ronda & David Armitage

A great book with excellent vocabulary which can be discussed & used as a dictionary quiz.

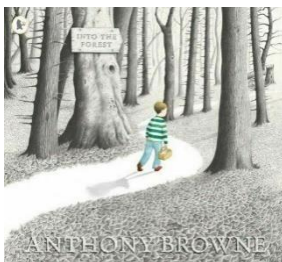

Tiddler by Julia Donaldson

Reminder about rhyming words & phrases also look for hidden Gruffalo illustration in the text.

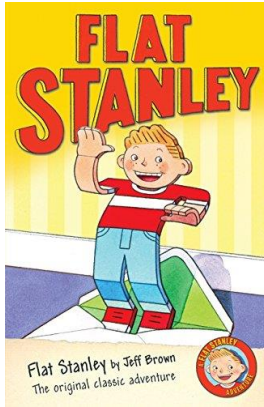

The Egg by M. P. Robertson

A super tale about how an egg is found and a dragon appears. Super starting point for creative writing.

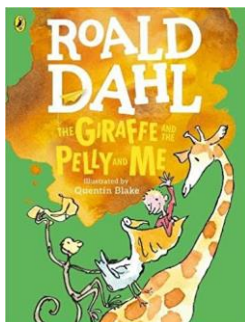

Into the forest by Anthony Browne

Book of mystery and intrigue and links to fairy tales, can they spot the links?

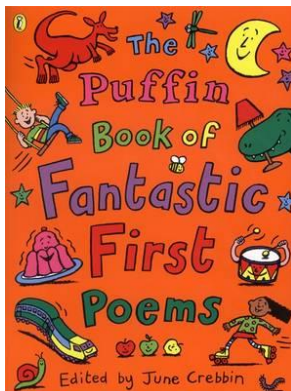

Flat Stanley by Jeff Brown

An excellent paperback about Stanley Lampchop who is an ordinary boy who is in a bit of a pickle.

Giraffe, Pelly & Me by Road Dahl

A classic book by a classic author!

Poetry - A Puffin Book of Fantastic First Poems Edited by June Crebbin

Very Useful Website giving Year group book lists which will also help you choose a non-fiction age appropriate book of choice.

www.booksfortopics.com

Also, if you want to buy less costly books the second-hand book website is superb www.worldofbooks.com

We hope these books titles and guidance are of use, the most important point is that reading and sharing of stories should be enjoyable not a battle. If the texts are too challenging you can share the story, talk about the story, spot key words and rhyming words.
